

Network Equipment Installed within AT&T Southwest Network Facilities that is not compliant to AT&T Southwest Minimum Safety Standards

AT&T Southwest Minimum Safety Standards Policy for Network Equipment in Texas:

All types of network equipment placed in AT&T Southwest network equipment areas by AT&T Southwest or CLECs must meet AT&T Southwest minimum safety standards. The minimum safety standards are:

1. Equipment compliance to Telcordia NEBS Level 1 requirements, or
2. Equipment history of safe operation demonstrated by placement in an ILEC network premises prior to January 1, 1998 with no documented or known history of safety problems.

Non-compliant equipment installed within AT&T Southwest network premises in the previous 12 months:

January through March, 2008

Manufacturer	Equipment Type
Nothing to Report

April through June, 2008:

Manufacturer	Equipment Type
Nothing to Report

July through September 2008

Manufacturer	Equipment Type
Nothing to Report

October through December 2007:

Manufacturer	Equipment Type
Nothing to Report	