Date: November 21, 2001

To: All BellSouth Interconnection Services' Customers

Subject: All Interconnection Services' Customers – REVISED - Update of Customer Contact Addresses (Originally posted on January 31, 2001)

In an effort to accurately target the designated contact person in each company, BellSouth is sending/posting this letter and requesting a response as set forth in this letter.

Each company should have a primary contact person (no more than one person) who is responsible for receiving mail on behalf of the company. BellSouth's lists of contacts, obtained from the Interconnection Agreements, are currently being confirmed for accuracy, therefore, this is to request that your company respond via U.S. Mail confirming or changing your company's primary designated contact information. BellSouth will waive its contractual right to receive any change to the notices section of the Interconnection Agreement and accept such changes via e-mail. BellSouth's waiver in this instance does not constitute a permanent waiver of the method of notice set forth in the agreements.

The type of information that will be mailed to this primary designated contact person will include, but not be limited to:

- All Short-term Notices of Network Change

These letters will also be posted to the following BellSouth Interconnection Services' Web sites:
