Subject: CLECs – Updates to the BellSouth Products and Services Interval Guide – Issue 4D

This is to advise that BellSouth is making several additions and updates to its Products and Services Interval Guide. These changes, designed to enhance the CLEC ordering process, will appear in Issue 4D of the Interval Guide scheduled to be posted to the BellSouth Interconnection Services' Web site on Friday, August 3, 2001. The following changes will be effective with the posting of the Interval Guide:

- Add Line Splitting to the Unbundled Network Element (UNE) Interval Table
- Modify the UNE Interval Table to distinguish between ADSL, HDSL, UCL-L and UCL-S with loop modification and without loop modification
- Define a "project"
- Furnish a broadened definition of "project managed"
- Update the services that will be project managed. This will include the Complex/ Non-complex Resale Interval Tables for ACT W.

Changes listed above may not be all-inclusive.

The updated Interval Guide issue will contain a summary of changes made to the document. This summary will appear in the "Summary of Changes" section of the document. This update can be found at the BellSouth Interconnection Services' Web site in the Customer Guides Section at:
