Web Page to be Re-Designed

This is to advise users of the BellSouth TAG that effective June 14, 2002, the TAG Web page will be re-designed. Listed below is each section of the new Web page with a content description. The newly designed Web page places announcements first, ensuring that each TAG user is aware of those announcements.

Section Name	Content
TAG News	Includes announcements and information regarding: TAG Security Credentials TAG Application Program Interface (API) Expiration Schedule
TAG Documentation	Includes TAG API Reference Guides for versions in CLEC Application Verification Environment (CAVE) and in production. Also, the most current TAG Programmer's Job Aid
TAG API Software	Provides for download of the most current software version available in CAVE and in production

Please contact your BellSouth Local Support Manager with any questions.

Sincerely,
