Subject: CLECs – Update to the BellSouth Unbundled Network Element (UNE)-to-UNE Bulk Ordering Specifications for Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) Trading Partners, Version 4

This is to advise that the BellSouth UNE-to-UNE Bulk Ordering Specifications for EDI Trading Partners, Version 4, will be posted to the BellSouth Interconnection Services' Web site on March 12, 2003.

The following update has been made:

- Section 6 – Comma-delimited File Layout
 - Provided clarification that because the comma is used as the data separator, the inclusion of a comma in actual data will result in an error condition.
