Subject: All Interconnection Services Customers – (Documentation/Guides) - BellSouth Local Ordering Handbook (LOH) Search Tool

This is to advise that on November 23, 2003, the BellSouth LOH Search Tool, located on the Interconnection Web Portal, will be taken off-line temporarily while it is being upgraded. The upgrade is designed to better integrate the search engine with the LOH source data.

During the upgrade, the Search Tool Web page and Home page on the Portal will contain a link to the current version of the Local Ordering Handbook. Searches can be completed using the Find feature available in the LOH documents.

The LOH is not affected by the upgrade to the Search Tool. The LOH can be accessed directly from the BellSouth Interconnection Services' Web site at:

<http://www.interconnection.bellsouth.com/guides/html/leo.html>.

If you have any question, please contact your BellSouth Local Support Manager.

Sincerely,
