Subject: All Interconnection Services Customers – (Business/Operational Process) –
Introducing a Redesign of the BellSouth Interconnection Services Web site
(External, Customer Facing)

This is to advise that, on or before Friday, December 30, 2005, BellSouth will launch a redesigned BellSouth Interconnection Services (ICS) customer Web site, located at:

<http://interconnection.bellsouth.com/>

The changes to the new Web site are intended to enhance usability for ICS customers by improving organization and navigability. The site features a new look and feel for ICS, one that will make it easier to locate content as quickly as possible. The site also features a new search tool powered by Google that improves search performance dramatically, making it easier to find the content users need.

These changes are intended to improve the customers' online experience by enabling them to conduct business with BellSouth ICS in a more efficient manner.

Questions or comments concerning the redesign may be submitted to the Interconnection Services Web Development Group at icsweb@bellsouth.com

Sincerely,
