Recalculated and Reposted Performance Measures:

Listed below are the measures for which previously reported results have been recalculated and reposted. AT&T makes available a listing of the recalculated and reposted performance measurement results that have also been restated (changed from the originally posted result) in the Reports section of this website. These reports are available for both CLEC-aggregate results and CLEC-specific results, and are accessed in the same manner as existing performance measurement reports.

- July and August 2008 results for performance measure 62 have been recalculated and reposted to include disags inadvertently omitted due to a production problem when this measure was restated November 5, 2008.
